

EWELL BUSINESSES, 1861

There is a page to give you a flavour of the era at Epsom Businesses 1861.

The 1861 census sheets for Ewell are some the worst I have ever seen, mostly because of the enumerator's eccentric handwriting, alterations and ink blots but partially because of his route (he didn't always seem too sure which street he was in) and he seemed to dodge about to avoid retracing his steps (and he may have dropped into the Green Man and William IV for a tipples en route). Consequently, it is not possible to present this in the same way as we did for 1911 or for Epsom businesses 1861 and maps are of limited use here. Instead, I will pick out the businesses in Green Man Street, High Street and West Street and show the proprietors in the order the enumerator recorded them. Where a building number is known from other sources it is shown in the left hand column.

The bakery was taken over by William Wood Junior, who was living with his three unmarried sisters, Emma, Ellen and Elizabeth, in 1871. Ellen died in 1877 and in due course Elizabeth decamped to Landport, Hampshire, where she set up a bakery of her own. When William Junior died in 1891 Emma was left with the Ewell business, which she ran until 1905, when it was taken over by Charles William Elliott; she died in 1910 at the grand age of 92. John Pilgrim
Hairdresser

Born c.1836 Ewell. Married 1861 Mary Ann Sawyer (c.1842 Ewell-March 1862, daughter of Mrs Sawyer below) and then in 1869 married Elizabeth Francis Hawkins (c.1838 Cambridge-1889 Brighton). By 1889 the family had moved with several of the children to the Lewes Road in Brighton (not a very prepossessing area). In 1892 Mr Pilgrim married Rachel Baxhill (1860 Ditchling, Sussex-1927 Brighton). Died 1902 Steyning district, Sussex.

Children – Harry John (c.1862-1944 Bristol, bank clerk, married Fanny Deamery, daughter of baker John Deamery – see above); Mary Francis Seymour (1870-1919 Brighton*, married brewer's assistant Charles Henry Batchelor); Alfred John (1872-1903 Wycombe district, Buckinghamshire, lived High Wycombe; wood carrier, married Ada Hunt ); Emily Harriet (1873-1931 Lewes, married auctioneer's porter George James Edwards); Florence Mary (1874); George Maris (1876-1937 Brighton, electrical engineering turner**); Herbert William (1878-1951 Brighton, hairdresser's assistant, married Charlotte Annie Batchelor); Maud Susan (1879, married butler Zenas Silvanus Griffin***).

**The GRO index gives the age at death as 98, but this seems to be a typographical error.*

\*In 1911 he was a widower with two children living in Brighton; there was also a housekeeper called Mrs Beatrice Blanche Foster (nee Osborne), aged 25. I have been unable to find any marriage record for his first wife, but in 1918 he married Mrs Foster.*

\**I am not too convinced about this forename, but on the four occasions it appeared in UK records it was different each time. I last sighted the Griffins in 1901, working as a butler and cook in Hove.*

Mrs Mary Sawyer
Postmistress

Mrs Sawyer handed over her Post Office duties to Mr Pilgrim in 1861 – see Postal History for more information.

	Miss Mary Wallis  Lodging house keeper	Vine Cottage. I don't generally classify lodging houses as businesses, since many people took in a lodger or two to make ends meet, and this was undoubtedly the case with the wonderful Miss Wallis. However, she is probably my favourite Ewell character, so I make no apologies for including her picture. Her life story at Mary Wallis is worth a read too.
