Non cul'.

Sessions at Reigate, 8 April 1662

p250. Before Christopher Buckle JP, William Bold and Richard Nickolls ad pros' versus Paul Barber and Thomas Skeete [This is Richard Nichols of Ewell, blacksmith, whose recognisances appear below in Sessions Rolls V m.117 and VII m.239]. Exon'.

p258. John Cuttington of Ewell elected High Constable for the hundred of Cophthorne (Henry Eastland retiring).

p310. Before Christopher Buckle, knight, John Dickinson ad respond'; William Warner ad pros' versus John Dickinson. Exon'; protulit indict'. [John Dickeson [sic] of Ewell was charged with theft from William Warner of Dorking, 13 August 1662; see Sessions Roll VII m.239/240 below]. He had appeared earlier, 3 August 1662 (VII m.60), as John Dickinson of Dorking, not Ewell, but this is apparently a mistake].

p335. Itt is Ordered by this Court that the severall persons hereunder written bee allowed the severall pensions hereunder written which are to bee paid unto them by the Treasurers for maymed Soldyers and their said pencions by the said Treasurers by quarterly payments untill this Court take further Order herein to the Contrary... Charles Parkhurst of Epsom, 4l. per annum.

Sessions at Guildford, 14 July 1663 pp384–5. Complaint made on behalf of the Inhabitants of Malden that Margaret Woodstocke, spinster, being lately sent from Malden where she was born, to Ewell, by warrant of Daniel Harvey and Richard Hatton Kts., JPs, lately became sick and impotent at the house of Roger Heath of Worster Parke, where she was a hired servant; that the said Heath alleges his house is not in 'Ewell or any other parish', and sent her to Malden. Ordered that she be sent back to him who is to receive and provide for her according to law until 'he shall make itt appeare in what parish his howse is'.

p395. Pensioners to be paid in the West Division include Charles Parkhurst of Ebsham, £4.

Order Book no. II

Sessions at Reigate, 19 April 1664

pp22–3. At a meeting at Lambeth on 9 May 1664, held in pursuance of an Order at Sessions 19 April last, it was agreed that £600 be raised in Surrey for the ensuing year for Pencioners, Goale, hospitall and charitable uses, and these sums to be apportioned on the parishes by the JPs of the divisions.

In the apportionment of sums within the Hundred of Cophthorne, Ewell was assessed for £4 11s 10d and Ebsham for £4 6s 4d.

p39. In regard to the Order made 14 July July last as to the settlement of Margaret Woodstocke by sending her to Roger Heath of Worster Parke where she was a hired servant etc., the Inhabitants of Malden now complain that Roger Heath refuses to receive or provide for her and has not yet been bound over to answer. Confirmation of the said order, binding over the said Heath.

Sessions at Kingston, 4 October 1664

p59. In regard to Margaret Woodstocke, servant to Roger Heath, who became sick and impotent in his service, it was not shown in what parish Roger Heath's house was. Heath protested that the charge of any sick person should not be laid on one individual and prayed discharge from the Order requiring him to provide for her. Evidence on behalf of the Inhabitants of Ewell and Mauldon having been heard, as it was supposed Heath's house of Worcester Parke was in one or other, it was ordered that the said woman be conveyed to Ewell, there to be provided for, unless cause to the contrary be shown.

Sessions at Reigate, 4 April 1665

p98. John Waterer of Ewell elected High Constable for the hundred of Copthorne (Robert Hawkins retiring).

pp99–103. Richard Evelyn, esquire, and Edward Barne, both of Ebsham, and Thomas Fendall and John Waterer, both of Ewell, empanelled among the jurors for the hundred of Copthorne.

p118. 'Whereas since the said Visitation of ye plague within the City of London and places adjoining itt hath beene observed that there hath beene a great resort and confluence of people from ye said city to ye parish of Epsham within the County under color and pretence of drinking ye waters there and by that meanes it is too justly to be feared that the infection may be brought not onely to ye said parish but to ye parishes and places adjacent and to ye parishes in the road from London. For prevention whereof ye Justices of peace of this County now present in open Court have made itt their request and desire to Richard Evelyn Esq., one of ye Justices of ye peace of this County now present in Court being Lord of ye mannor of Epsham to shutt and locke up ye wells in ye said parish for this summer and not to permitt ye said waters to be dranke off and to use his utmost endeavour for ye preventing of any srrangers coming into ye said parish and for ye preventing of any Coaches to resort to London or to passe with travellers or strangers from thence to ye said parish or to permitt any goods to be brought in Carts waggons or otherwise of any strangers into ye said parish'. Ordered that the constables and headboroughs keep strict watch accordingly. If any offend, Mr. Evelyn is desired to bind them over to appear.

p122. Ordered that Edmond Hord of Ewell be allowed the yearly pension of £4 in place of Daniel Browne deceased. [Daniel Browne of Carshalton was on the list of maimed soldiers entitled to a pension in Order Book I p335 (1663)].

p126. Sir Nicholas Carew debet John Cobb for a bastard [see the recognisance taken out against John Cobb of Ewell for fathering a bastard in Sessions Roll XIX m.38 below].

Leiuenanty as also a petition of the Inhabitants of the parish of St. Saviour within the said burrough to the like effect and on Consideration had concerninge the Lamentable Condition of the said Burrough, parishes adioyninge and other the parishes within this County visited with the pestilence and which are unable to releife themselves this Court doth thinke fitt and soe order that there bee an Assessment made on the several parishes and Inhabitants within this County, except the parishes hereunder named which are at present visited with the pestilence for two weekes for the releife of the said visited places’.

Ewell is included among the parishes which are exempt from assessment because they are suffering from the plague.

Sessions at Dorking, 9 January 1666 p143. William Parkhurst and Peter Basemore elected as Constables for the parish of Ewell (John Evans and Thomas Hoard retiring).

Sessions at Reigate, 24 April 1666

p164. Roger Steward elected High Constable for the hundred of Copthorne (John Waterer [of Ewell] retiring).

p164. James Palmer elected as Constable for the parish of Epsom (Edward Barrett retiring) and Nicholas Elliott as Constable for ‘Woodcott in the Same’ (Imanuell King retiring).

Sessions at Reigate, 2 October 1666 p200. Whereas at the Sessions of 5 October 1665 it was ordered that certain sums be raised for the relief of the Borough of Southwark and other places and parishes in the county visited with the pestilence, and it appears that the sum of £8 12s 8d charged upon the parish of Ebsham has not been paid, nor even assessed on the parish, it is ordered that the constable, Churchwardens and Overseers of Ebsham appear at the adjournment of this Sessions to be held on 12 October next at St. Margaret’s Hill within the Burrough to show cause why the money has not been assessed and paid. In default, some JP is desired to bind over the said Constable to the next Sessions to answer for contempt.
